Dear Ray and Christine,

After many years of doing business with you and Sun Rays Harvest, I had to sit down and write you a note on some observations. I do business, as you know with many purveyors, however you and Christine truly have standards that set you apart from others. You make it so easy for a Chef to consult with you, do research with you, and create tastes and flavor profiles that work for my clientele. It is truly amazing. Your consistent service and detail to quality is superb. Knowing that you use sustainable agriculture also make me feel that you're cutting edge and giving back to the earth for generations to come.

In closing you and Christine give back so much to the Culinary Community and our craft. I personally want to say thank you. I look forward in a long friendship.

Sincerely,

John Kane, CEC
